

Recreation without conflict

Sophie Gordon, Campaigns Manager, Cycling UK

Mark Weston, Director of Access, British Horse Society

Bring your challenge

- What's your challenge that you are bringing to this lab session? What would you like to solve?
- 2 mins to discuss with the person next to you

Be nice, say hi

- Conflict often more perceived than real – usually comes down to a lack of understanding
- Started by mountain bikers from Ride Sheffield in the Peak District
- Cycling UK and BHS took up the message nationally

Adopted in the Surrey Hills National Landscape

Sharing good practice

- Write on the flipchart sheets – what have you seen or done which has worked well, either at your own organisation or in other places?
- What can we learn from it?

Discussion

What did someone else write down that you found interesting, and would like to know more about?
